

Ask Consent Before...

Consent isn't just about sex, ask consent before you....

Touch someone's things

Hug Someone

Take a photo

Bring up a sensitive topic

Eat/Drink Someone's food

Try on their clothes

Kiss Someone

Enter someone's space

High Five Someone

And if you get an enthusiastic yes, go for it!
Otherwise, accept the no gracefully and move on.

Yes Means Yes!

When asking consent from another person to do something to or with them, that being a hug, kiss, sex, or otherwise only yes means yes.

"I have to meet my friend"

"Maybe Later"

Laughter

"I'm drunk"

Silence

"I don't know"

"I don't want to do that"

"I'm Not Sure"

"Eh.."

"Stop"

Is Not Consent

If you do not get an enthusiastic yes, then the answer is no. Don't try to pressure them into changing their answer, take their no thanks gracefully and move on.
